

Stokke Recalls YOYO³ Strollers Due to Injury Hazard

Stokke has issued a voluntary recall for certain Stokke® YOYO³ strollers. The parking brake on the recalled strollers may disengage, posing an injury hazard. Units affected by this issue have serial numbers that begin with the sequence "142AA" followed by a number that falls below "0062239". Only strollers with these numbers are affected. The serial number is located on a tracking label under the stroller seat.

Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled strollers and register at the Stokke recall portal to receive instructions for the return/ refund of the affected YOYO³ stroller and all its components.
